 Contains explicit language, sexual situations, and graphic violence

Cristono Acerra is a foul mouthed, OCD, control freak, that has a photographic memory, and uses it to his full advantage—getting every lady he meets. His barrage of tattoos just adds to the charisma that is this tall, Italian playboy.

That is until Isabella Calise walks into his life and the walls come tumbling down around him. His neat and orderly world turns upend and it's nothing he's prepared for. Her softness and innocence derail him and he will do anything to keep her at bay—keep her from inching inside his structured world.

But that is the exact opposite of what comes crashing down on him.

The business becomes jeopardized when his mind slowly spirals, and his need for her takes over. Antonio and Niccolo are faced with a betrayal that almost takes one of the family. This takes you through the inner workings of The Family Business, and exactly how high the stakes are and will always be.

This is a blended Family that loves hard and dies by the code, and the only thing keeping it molded together is Maggie Sullivan. She is the center and the reason they fight for everything they have.
