THE WRONG BODY (revised edition) Don Hale

A fast paced race against time to right a wrong, solve a series of murders, and unravel a fascinating international political plot. An important foreign delegate is unexpectedly pushed under a subway train in New York just after posting some secret papers to his daughter in London. This incident sparks a 'bloody' chase across the UK to find her and/or the package, puts her life in danger and attracts unwelcome attention from underworld international assassins. Amidst all this chaos a journalist suddenly and unexpectedly becomes entwined in the plot when his friend is seriously injured in a drugs hijack and a local businessman is framed for a murder he didn't commit. The intriguing saga becomes a fascinating plot within a plot engaging the Intelligence services from several countries and leads to an exciting and totally unexpected climax.
