Winds of Change Ruth Brown

Winds of Change(Rise of the Paladin) is a fantasy set one thousand years into our future. The world is changed by Jupiter igniting and turning into a sun. The blast wave hits the Earth's moon and fractures causing holes to tear in the fabric of Time and Space itself bringing dragons back into the land of men along with elves coming forth from Avalon once more upon the Tor. Gnomes, orcs, fairies, nymphs and satyrs all re-emerge. Lucifer has broken the bonds that bound him to the pit of hell. He hides in human disguise for many, many years waiting for the right moment to unleash his rage upon man. Our heroes set out on several quests to find legendary weapons of the ancient world to join the races of the earth together. Our journey begins in Book One as we introduce our characters and set the tone for the other two books to follow. Valuds Stormyst regent of Lorthramar and soon to be crowned king rally's the races of the Earth to join him in conquering Lucifer and his minions. Prince Valudaz Plaguemyst, son of Vaudus captured by Lucifer and bent to his whims breaks free of his power and leads the assault upon Gahenna. Rahnyah, one of the high mages of old Salem aids the new king in his quest to rally the people of Earth to fight against the great fallen angel.
