Caesar: Invasion of Britain W. Welch, C. G. Duffield

Adapted from Caesar's De Bello Gallico, this graded reader details one of the most exciting episodes of the Gallic campaign, Caesar's failed and then successful invasion of Britain. Caesar provides a vivid and engrossing account of these campaigns that played a critical role in the histories of both Rome and Britain. The straightforward Latin and the compelling subject matter make this an ideal text for Latin students who have had the basic introductory sequence of courses.
