What causes a person to become involved in Satanism? How should Christians respond to the real threats of cults and the occult?

As E. James Wilder explains, the Bible teaches that we are all part of two communities, one natural and one spiritual. The natural community is made up of our families, friends, work, and culture, while the spiritual community revolves around God or Satan. When Christians and the Christian community fail to give people proper love and support, the door is opened for cults and the occult to provide for these human needs. This practical, comprehensive book shows how changes in the spiritual world that began with the first Christmas give Christians the power to affect both the spiritual and natural world.

Upbeat and nonsensational, The Red Dragon Cast Down will encourage those seeking answers. This powerful tool for those with cult or occult backgrounds, ministry and prayer teams, church communities, and parents is the only book that approaches restoration from evil using a community-based counseling perspective.
