Ingredients of Outliers: Woman Game Changer Jane Hamilton (Outlier Series Book 6) John Shufeldt Jane Hamilton, widely acclaimed and honored for her literary achievements, would say she happened upon her career as a bestselling author. Author of the Book of Ruth and A Map of the World, which were both Oprah's Book Club selections, she got her start as a career author when someone found her short story, My Own Earth, and turned it in to Harper's Magazine. Writing in the off-season at her apple orchard, she was simply enjoying her passion. Little did she know, she was a devastatingly good at it!

In this exclusive feature, Jane tells of her life experience as a mother and wife writing from the apple orchard. Her charming and inspiring story about the power of someone's belief in you, developing your voice as a writer, and the support of a strong family unit, is the bones of a great novel in and of itself.

Take a look inside this chapter, for food for the writer's soul, which will touch the student in us all. Readers can expect to delight in her imagination and heartwarming self-acceptance of her real-life missteps, as well as her tips on authenticity and staying true to oneself in the creative process. Those who aspire to be outliers in writing can surely look at a map of her world.
