Death is not an Option: A true story of how a man coped with a near death experience Ronnie C

This is the true life story of Ronnie C, who escaped to Greece in order to lead a simple life as an ordinary man working in the hotel industry. Little did he know of the contemporary health issues which would begin to plague him so far away from home.

After several years of happy living, disaster strikes. One night Ronnie is on his way home from the pub when he collapses and wakes in the hospital, receiving medical diagnosis and treatment and being hailed as a medical mystery puzzle. His confusion quickly turns to frustration as the doctors monitor him for any sign of relapse.

Finally, declared an ordinary man and no longer suffering contemporary health issues, he is discharged and returns to his true life's work in the hotel industry. But the lingering effects of the medical mystery puzzle of his illness swiftly catch up to him. Unable to work, his life story takes a dark turn as he is forced to come back to England, an ordinary man managing to get by.

Though at times it seems that life becomes too difficult, the inspiring story of Ronnie C, from the first days of his medical diagnosis and treatment to the struggles of everyday life, shows that it is worth standing up and saying, 'Death is not an Option.'
