National Service High Jinks by Eric M. Malcolm

The author was called up on Thursday, 5 June, 1947, exactly a month after his 18th birthday; under the National Service Acts of 1939-1946. No specific length of service was mentioned in these Acts, but it was generally recognized that the period of service was two years. However, for some obscure reason, the author served two years, three weeks and two days. This is his story from basic training to demob.

An enjoyable read with some humour. Includes interesting photographs and illustrations.
