A Cup Full Of Wrath Bruce Eagan

Roger Sanders, a.k.a Grim, is a gang member who fears no man. With a right hand that could easily stop a charging rhinoceros, Grim's only hope in life is to do push-ups behind bars or grow old with his Bullie homeboys. However, the Lord has other plans.

Haunted by a reoccurring nightmare that warns of impending doom, Grim awakes to discover his best friend has been shot to death. News reports are calling it "another gang related incident." Grim hits the streets wanting payback and he will not rest until he has done just that.

Mercy Shackelford was just putting the finishing touches on a relationship she no longer wanted anything to do with, when a pregnancy test confirmed she would soon be a mother. Making matters worse, the following morning, just hours after telling her erstwhile boyfriend that he would be a father, Mercy learns he was shot to death. She plans for an abortion but she receives good news about the child she is carrying, and that news is from Jesus Christ.

With their friendship sparked by a tumultuous beginning, Mercy and Roger find a commonality and are able to forge a bond in their newfound hope. Together they will put together the pieces of the puzzle that will uncover the truth surrounding the death of their friend and the identity of his killer, but will also help save the city of Dunbar, if the killer doesn't get them first.
