When most Christians hear about the Biblical festivals, they think of historical Jewish feasts. This has robbed tremendous blessings God desires to share with the Body of Christ for almost two thousand years. First, these are not Jewish feasts but are the "Feasts of the LORD." He ordained these Appointed times for His people to meet with Him. God desires to meet with His worshippers on these particular days. These are for Christians if they are worshippers of God. Secondly, God NEVER said that that He changed His Mind about His commandments of His Feasts. Jesus did not abolish God's Word, but manifested God's Word as He IS God's Word. Jesus kept the feasts, and Paul, and everyone else who wrote any of the New Testament. Most Christians today think they have some special revelation past Scripture and those who God utilized to write His Bible that they are "free" to ignore these dates God set to meet with His people. He said that these are forever; forever has not ended. If the unfulfilled prophesies of the "Old Testament" are studied it is very clear that the God's Feasts will be kept during the Millennial when Christians will rule with Jesus for a thousand years on earth. The best example of this is the final nine chapters of Ezekiel. The feasts of God are just like Him, they were, they are, and they will be. The Church should not let doctrines of men rob them of the blessing God gave.
