Lord, Give Me Strength: A short story about faith in interesting times

The righteous path is fraught with silliness...

Being a man of God is never an easy thing. But somehow, for Reverend Mike Galloway, being the pastor for a church in a small midwestern town is two steps away from madness. Between self-absorbed parishioners, clueless patrons, and scarily-ominous schoolchildren, Pastor Mike does his best to spread the Good News in interesting times.

Part memoir, part comedy, and part analysis of what it means to be a good Christian, Lord, Give Me Strength is a light-hearted look into the life of a man doing his best to do good, in the face of absurdity.

"I laughed, cried tears of joy, and I prayed for the sanity of poor Pastor Mike." — Rev. Dr. Malcolm Hoynes

"Devilishly funny!" — Baptist Chronicle Magazine
