“Not Without My Sister: A Bellingham Story” is a thrilling story of a brother and sister that develop an unbreakable bond as a result of the untimely deaths of their parents. Jack and Kelli Walker call Bellingham, Washington their home; where Jack runs his own hiking and biking tours to take advantage of the tourist influx; while Kelli works as a nurse.

Kelli joins her brother on one of his scheduled hiking tours in order to spend more time with him and better understand what he does for a living, the unthinkable occurs as Kelli suddenly and inexplicably goes missing while out on the trail with the group. Jack begins a mad search to try to determine what happened to his sister; willing to do anything to get her back. Will Jack’s search uncover what happened to his sister; or will his search result in Jack placing his own life or freedom in danger?

This is a thrilling story of the love that exists between a brother and sister and the unimaginable lengths a brother will go to in order to keep that bond from being irrevocably broken. This suspenseful tale takes place in the beautiful Pacific Northwest with Bellingham, Washington serving as the story’s central backdrop.
