Former cobalt addict and AKM enforcer, Io is known as much for his abrasive personality as for his playboy lifestyle. What he wants, he takes, and what he wants now is Miriam, but her father stands in the way.

Miriam is the daughter of the king. Strong-willed and defiant, she struggles to break free from her father's oppressive hold, turning to cobalt for the mind-numbing relief and freedom only drugs can provide.

When Miriam overdoses, she and Io are thrust together when he takes charge of her rehabilitation...as well as her body. He shows her the pleasure she's been missing under her father's strict control, and she wants more. As they embark on a reckless, forbidden affair steeped with a passion that refuses to be denied, not even her father's laws and threats are enough to defuse their new obsession with one another, even if the consequences are death.

NOTE: This book contains explicit sexual content between a male and a female, as well as mostly non-sexual homosexual references. Strong language and profanity.
