The Gravity of Love: Contemporary Romance Novel Anne Thomas

Two friends are coming to face the realities of life: bills need paying, work has to be done, car payments have a deadline, and the secret love that the two have harbored needs to be dealt with whether they like it or not, no matter how hard they resist.

She nodded, her tears slowing down. Maybe this could be the answer. Maybe when she came back, they'd be all back together and everything would be set right. That maybe Harrison would miss her too much to keep her away.

That was a whole lot of maybes, yet it was the only thing she had going for her. It was her last effort to make things right. After that, she'd get on with her life and leave it up to Harrison to start working on their problem.
