Wade Hampton Pipes: Arts and Crafts Architect in Portland, Oregon Ann Brewster Clarke

This is a well-researched and interesting book about the life-work of one of the region's early architects. Wade Pipes brought English Arts and Crafts principles of design and construction to Portland, Oregon in 1911 and drawing on English sources, developed a distinctive architectural style suited to the Northwest environment. Anyone interested in cultural heritage as reflected in architectural style will find this a valuable addition to their library. Many photos and sketches. Inventory of houses. 104 pages.
