Did I Marry the Wrong Guy?: And Other Silent Ponderings of a Fairly Normal Christian Woman

Michelle Stimpson

What wife hasn't second-guessed herself after a heated discussion or yet another curious incident of the missing remote control? In addition to the title's question, this book discusses those unspoken thoughts lurking in the back of even Christian women's minds, such as: • We've Grown Apart • I'm Just Not That Into Sex • I Miss the Thrill of Being Single • I Love My Husband, but I'm Not In Love • Watching My Parents Probably Messed Me Up While these silent ponderings might seem harmless, they have the potential to create a negative undercurrent of resentment if not specifically addressed in prayer. Stimpson tackles tough questions about wifehood in this short, humorous book of wisdom for the not-so-in-love-with-my-husband days.
