Cassandra Wolfe has one goal, to make them pay.

Gold. It is a plague that has washed across the land claiming everyone. No one is immune to the sickness. She begged her family to listen, but greed, envy and a lust for more destroyed them all. They thought they had crushed her dreams, but retribution burns in her soul like an ember waiting for the wind.

Dalton Rivers has one dream, to make her his.

He is a man on a mission, to bring the railroad to his family ranch in Wyoming. When Cassandra saves his life in San Francisco he finds a new dream worthy of fighting for. Now he has to convince her to fan the flames of hope in her soul and dream once more.
