Off to Neverland

John tasted the bittersweet taste of red wine in his tongue. He also felt the cold liquid spilling over the goblet and onto his bare torso. When he was done drinking, Tarzan put the cover over his mouth again.

“Delicious, isn’t it?” Tarzan asked, licking the spilled wine on John’s body. And though his current situation was humiliating, John felt himself getting excited and hard when Tarzan kissed him.

“You’re a kinky bastard, John Smith. Look at yourself,” Tarzan said with a mean laugh.

John then felt Tarzan standing up beside him. The sounds he heard told him Tarzan was taking off his clothes. Tarzan then lied beside him, hugging him from behind, his crotch pressed against John’s back.

Just then, the man whimpering earlier began to cry. Tarzan let out a small laugh at the sound of his pleas.

“Do you hear him?” Tarzan asked in a low voice. “Do you hear his cries?”

John nodded, unable to answer with the kerchief tied on his mouth.

“Do his cries turn you on? Do they inspire you?”

John nodded again, thinking that it was the answer that Tarzan wanted to hear. But Tarzan seemed to be infuriated by his response. He stood up with a jerk and with his big hands he dragged John’s body across the floor.

John tried to wriggle out of his hold. He squirmed and moved his body in protest. But the knots around his ankles and wrists made it impossible for him to escape.

Suddenly, Tarzan stopped walking. John could feel his heart beating so hard that it almost broke free from his chest. He didn’t know what was about to happen and it scared the hell out of him. He wanted to beg for his life but he was gagged. He wanted to cry but his tears were soaked by the blindfold before they even poured out of his eyes.

“Oh, Johnny,” Tarzan said crouching beside him. “You are shaking. Are you scared?”

John nodded again and Tarzan stroked his hair as if he was trying to soothe him.

“Will knowing why make things better? Will it, Johnny?”

John nodded once more.

“Alright. Since I’m about to kill you anyway”—John let out another desperate whimper—“I’m going to tell you all the seven reasons why.”
