Her Tender Tyrant (The Alfieri Saga Book 5) Elizabeth Lennox

Marcus moved through life expecting everything to be logical. Science could explain everything and he'd learned to make enormous profits understanding science. So when he runs into the illogical Juliette, his mind has a hard time understanding why she would walk down the street singing and dancing. There wasn't any music! But no matter how much he craved logic and reason, his body craved Juliette more.

Juliette is fascinated by Marcus's stoicism. How could he walk down the street and not feel the joy in the sunshine? How could he ignore the sounds of the grasshoppers and birds? Or smile at the perfection of a flower? And how could her mind and body need a man who didn't understand the joy of living life for the moment?
