To move on, Leave the past behind, And build a new life with Jay. That's all Em wanted. After everything they'd been through together, they were both overdue their 'happily ever after'. Too bad the world doesn't work that way. Memories last longer than dreams and Em's fears continue to plague her both day and night, interfering with that new life she so desperately craves. To start over, Secure a future, And give Em the life she deserves. That was Jay's plan, but the past isn't done with them, yet. While Em still struggles to overcome the ghosts of her past, Jay is forced to come face to face with his. When the skeletons in his closet step back into the light, Jay must decide what he will do—and what he will sacrifice—to protect Em from them. Against all odds, Em and Jay are on the verge of having everything they've ever wanted. They've fought for it before, but is their love strong enough to endure any more heartache? The time has come for each of them to choose for themselves whether or not they will allow the past to continue to corrupt their future. And, together, they must decide, will it be . . .
