Be A Vessel of Honor Gloria Copeland

God has called His children to live set apart from evil and to be sanctified or holy. To be holy simply means to obey God in everything He says and stop participating in the world's ways. When believers live close to God, the benefits are remarkable. Sometimes Christians struggle with old habits, but God is willing and ready to help. His ways produce freedom! Gloria Copeland encourages readers to seek God's specific plans for their life so they can live in victory.
