Fire and Ice: Burned (The Fire and Ice Series) (Volume 1) Kiara Delaney

Kellan Haines is a true bad-boy through and through, from his reckless behavior down to his foul mouthed, take-no-prisoners attitude. Yet, the self-proclaimed playboy has no trouble luring all-too-eager women into his bed. Filled with angst, the only thing Kellan really cares about is getting out of the small, sleepy town he's felt trapped in for his entire life. There's no denying the immediate spark that enflames the moment Hailey Dawson enters Kellan's life. He's sexy as sin, dripping with dominance, and his perfectly carved, tattooed body leaves her reeling every time he's near. But his hot and cold temper had been giving her whiplash from the second they met. Refusing to back down against his constant tirades, Hailey battles to maintain her composure while fighting her attraction to Kellan. When Kellan's best friend, Jordan, begins to show interest in Hailey, she's quickly consumed by doubt. Jordan's advances, with his laid-back charm and boyish good looks, leave Hailey feeling stuck between a rock and a hard spot, as she battles losing herself to a man that's no good for her, or falling into the arms of a perfect gentleman that's seemingly too good to be true. Jordan's actions don't go unnoticed by Kellan, and are like pouring gasoline on the fire, as his unwelcome, territorial feelings begin to develop for Hailey. As the erotic heat rises to a fever pitch between the couple, can Kellan's icy exterior be cracked, or will Hailey end up getting burned in the end?
