“One hundred years after the fateful shots rang out in Sarajevo, World War I continues to fascinate students of international politics,” writes Sean Lynn-Jones in his introduction to World War I: A Batch from International Security. Bringing together articles spanning 30 years of International Security, this Batch focuses on the causes of WWI and its lessons for today’s leaders. The authors explore such topics as the July crisis, the cult of the offensive, and economic interdependence. Dig in.
