Standalone Novel.

Intended for adults 18+ due to sexual content.

Amy isn't a normal eighteen year old girl. She has never attended school. She doesn't own a smartphone. She doesn't know the latest fashion and she has never seen the newest reality TV show.

Amy has lived her entire life hidden away in the mountains with her mentally ill mother and her mother's dark secrets. She has no contact with the outside world, until the day she sees him for the first time through the crack in the tall wooden fence that holds her prisoner. Every day she returns to watch the boy through the fence, imagining what it would be like....to be kissed, to be touched, to be loved.

But her mother has warned her, "The world is evil, Amy. The boys will hurt you and the girls will laugh."

What happens when tragedy strikes and Amy is forced to seek help from a boy in a world she's never known?

Dillon is a lonely farm boy content with running his father's horse ranch, until Amy stumbles onto his property begging him to help her. An emotional connection quickly turns into an intense physical one.

He wants to give her the world and she wants him to give it to her. All of it.
