Working together at their preschool, the authors participate in a very special Kabbalat Shabbat program. Each week Tobey and Nechama teach their students about the weekly Torah portion, and the children re-enact the parashah through drama, stories, songs, and activities. Tobey and Nechama decided to compile all of these stories into one book so that others could make the Torah an active part of their students' lives.

This exciting new resource has songs, plays, stories, and activities to make parashat ha-Shavua come alive in your pre-school classes. The goal of this book is to teach young children (and their families!) about each of these parashiyot through the use of drama, stories, music, crafts, science, math, language, and cooking.

At the end of each parashah they have created family discussion pages with questions that can be sent home to parents. The questions are appropriate for Shabbat dinner discussions.

This is the consummate resource for bringing the weekly Torah portion alive for pre-school students.

Torah Aura Productions publishes books for Jewish schools and families that help celebrate our heritage and our faith.

We have over 25 years of experience as the leading creator of high quality educational materials that enable Jewish children to become empowered Jewish adults.

Our books guide and enhance the Jewish knowledge, spirituality and identity of children and their families, and our innovative tools bring Judaism alive in synagogues, Hebrew schools, and day schools.

Torah Aura Productions was founded in 1981 by a group of innovative Jewish educators who looked out at the field of Jewish education and found materials that were shallow and dull. They started a company to create new tools for families and teachers that would be exciting and meaningful. For more than two decades, Torah Aura has revolutionized the way Jewish schools enable their students to become empowered Jewish adults, and has helped families make Judaism a meaningful presence in their homes.
