A perfect storm of escapism, suspense, romance and heartbreak, with an ending you won't see coming! Anna's high school is already complicated. What with one dying and one absent parent she is the poster child for #sexdrugsrocknroll.

When she finds herself pregnant, what's a good girl to do? Not until she divorces and remarries does she meet Ben and fall passionately in love. They spend the next twenty years waiting until the other one is ready. Then, one day, Gabriel says "Hello".

This is not a Disney-like fairy tale with a happilyforeverafter ending. Think Grimm's. There are trolls under every bridge, giants in the woods, and the witch always - always - wins.
