Haunted Forests, Haunted Woods, Haunted Mountains, Haunted Castles, Haunted Cemeteries. Occult Unexplained Mysteries.

Some places are rich in history, beautiful, tranquil, and serene; but they are also places that without warning, can suddenly turn into very creepy and sinister places, bringing the unshakeable feeling that someone or something is silently watching you from afar, waiting to come closer.

Here are some of those places.....and the things that happened in them.

Excerpts;

'When he was brought back up to the surface his face was frozen in shock and he was unable to talk. He could never speak again, and the mystery of what he had seen down there stayed with him but in the few minutes that he had been down there he seemed to have unnaturally aged.'

'A monstrous entity in the dark corners that is human in shape but terribly decomposed and emits a dreadful stench. Instead of eyes it has jet black holes, described as never ending pits that pull a person into them in horror.'

'They were to stay there just one night after his daughter was found the next morning with terrible injuries to her face and with no idea how it had happened to her or who had done it.'

'The hole was eventually sealed over because it was believed to be a hole that led directly to hell itself. A chapel was built over the top of it with religious paintings inside it, of demons and winged creatures being slayed.'

'He had heard rustling in the bushes beside the path he was walking on and thought it must be an animal, perhaps a deer. Then it seemed that the noise was coming from directly behind him and when he turned around to look, there was a small girl standing completely still, staring at him. Her entire eyes were jet black.'

'People have become lost for days in the forest and have suddenly come across a hanging body, and almost given up in despair of ever getting out alive.'
