The Sequel to the Best selling The Friendships of Women!

You have a deep, abiding need for relationship with other women. Why, then, do these friendships sometimes become complicated and painful? How can you make those bonds more rewarding and intimate? Best selling author and speaker Dee Brestin shares the answers to these questions and many others in this newly updated sequel to the top-selling book, The Friendships of Women.

Women have a gift for intimacy that can be used for evil, and God's friendship pattern can unleash the good and overcome the pain. Drawing on three models found in Scripture and poignant personal stories, Dee invites you to explore with her how sisters relate to one another, the ways in which they can add meaning to one another's lives, and the intrinsic value of these important relationships.
